

Prayer Calendar

2012

Thank you for your commitment to pray for Wesleyan Native Ministries in 2012!
Here are specific ways you can pray for us each month:

January

- Follow-up from Christmas outreach events, and discipleship of new Native believers
- Health for Native pastors and leaders
- Our financial goals to be reached in 2012
- Rev. Rich (and Candace) Avery, WNM Director

February

- The new home building project for Navajo Pastor Darwin Tsosie's family in Arizona
- New financial partners to help us equip and empower more Native leaders and start new Native churches
- Rev. Ben (and Bettie) Yazzie, who pastors Low Mountain Community Church in Low Mountain, AZ
- Our ongoing funding needs

March

- The new home building project for Navajo Pastor Darwin Tsosie's family in Arizona
- More Wesleyan churches to take steps to reach out to Native people in their communities
- Wisdom for the WNM Board of Directors at its meeting on March 29
- For Native believers to grow in the grace of giving and Native churches to grow in financial self-sufficiency

April

- The new home building project for Navajo Pastor Darwin Tsosie's family in Arizona
- Spirit-led Easter worship services in Native churches
- Native ministry leaders to enjoy increasing favor with tribal elders and community leaders
- Missions team leaders, as they make plans to serve with Native pastors and churches this summer
- WNM supporters to grow in the grace of giving

May

- Rev. Larry & Dale Salway, co-pastors of He Sapa New Life Wesleyan Church in Rapid City, SD
- The Shack outreach center located on the Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe Reservation near Hayward, WI
- God's anointing on new Native leaders as they study and prepare for pastoral ministry

June

- Missions teams that are serving with Native pastors and churches this month
- The Wesleyan Church General Conference, June 2-6, in Lexington, KY
- Safe travel for WNM staff to many District Conferences over the summer
- Our financial goals to be reached by June 30, the end of our budget year
- Rev. Patricia (and Doug) Crockett, who pastors Cherokee Wesleyan Church in Cherokee, NC

July

- Missions teams that are serving with Native pastors and churches this month
- Dr. Jerry (and Johanna) Yellowhawk, our Respected Elder
- More Native men and women to hear God's call to ministry
- Renewed strength and courage for Native pastors and leaders who often face spiritual opposition and warfare

August

- Missions teams that are serving with Native pastors and churches this month
- Christian business people to partner with us to explore ways to create jobs in Native communities where there are none
- Rev. Dan (and Martha) Duda, who pastors Cattaraugus Indian Chapel in Irving, NY

September

- Follow-up from summer outreach events, and discipleship of new Native believers
- Rev. Sandy (and Mary) Sinesi, who pastors the Wesleyan Chapel Among the Onondagas in Nedrow, NY
- New Native churches and house churches started this year
- More Native men and women to hear God's call to serve in pastoral ministry

October

- Courage for new Native believers who face spiritual opposition and warfare
- Open doors in new Native communities
- Pastor Cheryl (and Tito) Arguello, who pastors Lakota Chapel in Pierre, SD

November

- Donations of Christmas gifts for children and teens who will attend Native Christmas outreach events in December
- Native believers to be encouraged
- Rev. Darwin (and Ann) Tsosie, who pastors Red Rock Community Church near Keams Canyon, AZ
- Wisdom for the WNM Board of Directors

December

- That many will take steps of faith in Christ through Native Christmas outreach events planned across North America
- Renewed energy and strength for Native leaders as they plan and lead the Christmas outreach events
- Our ongoing financial needs

Keep in touch with the latest news and prayer requests by...

Friending us on Facebook: www.Facebook.com/WesleyanNativeMinistries
Following us on Twitter: www.Twitter.com/WesleyanNative
Subscribing to our email newsletter at www.WesleyanNativeMinistries.org